A Missouri Toast

A New Franklin, Mo., paper of recent date has the following under the above heading:

"If all the wheat in Missouri were one grain the only place to plant it would be the Great Canon, Arizona, the only hole in the earth big enough to hold it. If all the corn in Missouri were one ear the only way to shell it would be by steamship pullers, extracting one grain at a time from the cob. If all the cattle in Missouri were one cow, she would browse the herbage of the tropics, whisk the icicles off the North Pole with her tail, and supply milk enough to fill a canal Gulf on which to ship the boat loads of her butter and cheese. were one rooster he could stand at Colossus and crow until he shook the rings off the planet Saturn.
